RegEd becomes exclusive training platform

RegEd becomes exclusive annuity training provider March 1st

We recently let you know we have selected RegEd as the exclusive training platform for Principal® annuity products. This change will take effect March 1st. The last day advisors can complete Principal product training through LIMRA is February 28th.

But don't worry! If you or your advisors have already completed training, you won't have to redo it. All training completed on the previous training platform will transfer over to the RegEd system. On March 1st, advisors must log-in through the Reg Ed website to create an account. Prior training certifications could take 24 hours to show on the site once they've created a log-in.

If an advisor is new to the RegEd platform they will need to create a username and password.

If advisors are ready to complete product training, or want to check verification of completed status, below are our annuity products and course codes:

Course Name	Course code	Product code
Principal - Income Annuity	15PIA_01	PRINCIPALINCOME
Principal - Deferred Income Annuity	15DIA_01	PRINCIPALDEFERREDINCOME
Principal - Select Series	15PSSAnn_01	PRINCIPALSELECTSERIES
Principal - Preferred Series Annuity	15PPSAnn_01	PRINCIPALPREFERRED SERIES

This how-to guide can help you navigate the RegEd site.

If advisors have additional questions on how to complete or verify completion of training, give us a call at 1-866-309-1623. We're happy to help.
