Approved As Applied

Approved - as Applied: The app went through and was approved as applied.

Notes:

- American General:

- » Policy Date: American General does not current date the policy date when the client signs their policy activation forms. To avoid the client paying multiple months premium: you can request for them to current date the policy when you submit the forms (most likely will send an endorsement).

- ANICO:

- » Monthly (M) vs Special Monthly (SM) – Monthly (M) is if the premium is over $100, the carrier offers to set up direct bill for monthly. If the client decides to set up EFT for monthly or if their premium is less than $100/month, they fall into the Special monthly category, and their premium is discounted. The client MUST submit an EFT if their premium is under $100/month or if they want to take advantage of the Special monthly rate.

- » Change in premium mode: If the client changes premium mode, we MUST email imgteam@americannational.com, alerting them of the change to premium mode. This is the same email we will use if the client wants to change policy date. Policy will not be reissued for premium mode change or policy date change, the client would just receive an amendment, showing the changes.

- Assurity:

- » When sending out DRs – Verify how the Application was signed (Electronically or Wet Sign): DRs must match how the app was signed (If app was wet signed, DRs must be, too). This could be for critical illness policies only.

- Banner:

- » Insufficient funds: If insufficient funds on first draft attempt, will attempt a second time before kicking back (within about 48 hours).

- Cincinnati Life:

- » Policy Date: Unless Saving Age, policy date will be 7 days after policy was mailed. They DO NOT change policy date to date Delivery Requirements were signed.
- » Client can mail in one check for 2 policies. Just make sure policy number and amount are written at the bottom of the check.

- John Hancock:

- » Bill Payment: John Hancock will accept Bill Payment from the client – You will need to contact John Hancock and ask for them to send you the Bill Payment information via email to forward to the client to set up the account.

- Prudential:

- » When payment is rejected, a new EFT is required (treat it just like a check).
- » Important Drafting Date Example: Policy date 1/17, client sets draft date on EFT for 1st of each month. Delivery requirements are sent to carrier on 1/19. Initial premium must be processed (takes 5-7 days) and carrier must allow letter explaining future draft to reach the client (allows 14 days) before setting up recurring draft. In this case, the carrier drafted initial premium immediately and then set next draft for 3/1 (2 months drafted on 3/1 to cover 2/1 and 3/1).

- Pacific Life:

- » Draft date (Recurring) will always be the effective date (ex. Effective 10/3 – draft date is the 3rd of every month). If the client wants to change, they must call the carrier and request (additional premiums may be due to keep policy current).
- » Policy Date: The date delivery acknowledgment is signed. (Unless saving age/requesting specific date)
- » Will date policy at the date of the TIAA if binding.

- Symetra:

- » If it is a term policy, they will change the policy date to current in their system and only draft one month. They will not reissue. They will send client a notification with new date in the mail.

- Transamerica:

- » Does NOT offer a return of premium rider.
- » If draft date is after policy date, carrier will draft 2 months without notifying client.
